Resubmission of claims

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir,

This amendment is in response to the notice of non-compliant amendment mailed to applicant on March 22, 2005.

The office complained that the amendment filed March 18, 2005 did not comply with the new amendment filing format by identifying claims 1, 26, and 37 as "PRESENTLY amended" instead of the required "CURRENTLY amended".

Applicant's agent deeply apologizes to the office for inadvertently failing to follow the latest and hopefully current changes the Office made to the amendment filing rules.

The undersigned further apologizes for imposing on the Office the unnecessary burden of sending several pages of notice of non compliance, handling the response to this notice, the impediment caused to the Office workflow, and any consternation this inadvertent mistake may have caused any and all of the Office employees. Applicant however also submits to the Office consideration that this mistake could have been easily corrected by minimal application of common sense or at most an extremely brief telephone call to applicant's agent. The undersigned urges the Commissioner to properly utilize its resources, and to correct the regulations to allow such mistakes to be corrected using a common sense approach that befits the Office's claim for being a service based organization that is considerate of its "clients".

A new listing of all claims follows. Applicant hopes that this submission follows all the latest regulations, and therefore that the amendment could finally be considered on the merits.
